

The InterGlobe HERITAGE Fellowship Jury

Our Jury comprises a diverse group of heritage professionals ranging from a conservation architect to a heritage historian, practitioner, and philanthropist.

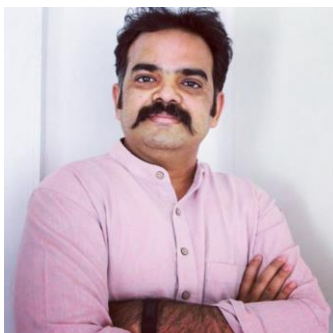

Swapna Liddle

Swapna Liddle is a historian with a special interest in Delhi. She wrote a Ph.D. thesis on 'Cultural and intellectual change in Delhi under the rule of the East India Company', and further has extended her study to the development of Delhi as an imperial capital city, particularly under Mughal and British rule. For many years she has also been closely involved in the movement to preserve historic sites and monuments. She is the author of 'Connaught Place and the Making of New Delhi', 'Chandni Chowk: The Mughal City of Old Delhi', and 'Delhi: 14 Historic Walks'.

Ratish Nanda

Conservation Architect, CEO (India), Aga Khan Trust for Culture

He heads the multi-disciplinary AKTC teams presently undertaking the two major urban conservation projects in India: the Nizamuddin Urban Renewal Initiative, Delhi, and the Qutb Shahi Heritage Park Conservation in Hyderabad. For AKTC, he was earlier responsible for the Baghe Babur restoration (2002-2006), in Kabul, Afghanistan and the garden restoration of Humayun's Tomb (1999-2003). Ratish has served as an ICOMOS expert in missions in Iran, Turkey and Nepal and lectured in over 20 countries including at ICCROM, Rome. His major publications include, 'Delhi, the Built Heritage: A listing' - released by the Prime Minister of India; 'Delhi: Red Fort to Raisina'; 'Conservation of Historic Graveyards' (Scotland) and 'Rethinking Conservation: Humayun's Tomb'.

Vaibhav Chauhan

CEO, Cultre

A heritage professional with over 15 years of experience in the culture and heritage sector. A cultural entrepreneur, Vaibhav specialises in Heritage Management and Tourism, Heritage Conservation, Public & Cultural Policy, and Corporate Social Responsibility. He has been associated with renowned institutions like UNESCO, Ministry of Culture, National Museum Institute, Sangeet Natak Akademi, and National Mission for Manuscripts to name a few. He has co-founded cultural enterprises like Sahapedia, India Heritage Walks &

Museums of India in the non-profit space and culture, Heritage Olympiad, Cultrebox in for-profit space. He was also a part of the Heritage Education Committee of CBSE and Museum Committee of National Bal Bhawan (MHRD).

Rohini Bhatia

Chairperson, InterGlobe Foundation

Rohini Bhatia is the Chairperson of InterGlobe Foundation, the philanthropic arm of InterGlobe Group. Under Rohini's guidance, InterGlobe Foundation and IndiGo's CSR have carried out some exemplary work in the fields of heritage restoration and environment protection. She is especially passionate about heritage restoration and waste management and has led this work from the front. The restoration of Rahim's tomb in New Delhi is one of the finest examples of her interest in this cause. Rohini has a diploma in Textile designing and also serves as a Director on the boards of the several InterGlobe Group of companies.